VUDOR--The Only Shade with a Ventilator

A feature which has made VUDORS so popular for years is the patented Ventilator woven in the top of each VUDOR Porch Shade, which automatically lets the hot air off the porch. This ventilator permits free circulation of air even when the Shades are down.

VUDOR Porch Shades are easily put up and taken down whenever desired. With VUDOR self-hanging equipment you just hook them up in the Spring and when you want to take them down, unhook them—that is all. With the solid porcelain roll-up fixtures they are easily rolled up and down to any point.

A million and a half VUDORS have been in use for years and the VUDOR trade mark identifies genuine VUDORS and means that these shades will last for ten years or more and that their first cost is surprisingly low.

CLASS SONG

Now that we must leave thee
Our hearts are filled with sorrow,
What the future holds for us
Will be known tomorrow.

Happy days here are over Teachers and classmates now must part;
We cannot bear to leave thee
You are so near our heart.

Farewell Higgins! Farewell Higgins!
Farewell Higgins Junior High!
The Class of 1933
Bids you a fond good-bye.

CLASS POEM

From A. D. Higgins we now must depart
With a feeling of sorrow in everyone's heart;

No more will our class be sheltered
by thee,
On our own resources in the future
we'll be.

"Ever Onward" our motto with us
will abide,
Because it will serve as our faithful
guide;
The teachers we thank for their kindness and aid,
A bulwark for the future their efforts have made.

When we enter high school as freshmen next fall,
Happy memories of "Higgins" we'll gladly recall;
We're proud to be graduates of this
Junior High,
With thanks for your training, we bid you good-bye.

Tony Renna, 8A,
Assisted by William Cowles, 8A.

CLASS HISTORY

September sixth, one thousand nine hundred thirty-two, the two hundred and one members of our class took their places in the eighth grade rooms of the A. D. Higgins Junior High School and looked toward the future, uncertain as to what it held in store, but determined to reach that goal now, at last, in sight—graduation. The year has passed, the goal is reached, and those uncertainties now form the History of the Class of 1933.

As school opened we renewed old acquaintances among the faculty and welcomed Miss Best who replaced Miss Taggart in 8A. During the year we found Miss Dorothy Fuge, Mrs. Lloyd, Mrs. Chouinard and Mr. Fowler substituting for various teachers when the need arose.

The organization of our Student Council took place during the third week of September and its officers were elected. They were: Allan Comrie, President; Bernie Buscemi, Vice-President; Ethel Humphries, Secretary. The Basement, Traffic, Safety and Playground Committees were appointed and began work immediately.

The school library was opened in September with Miss Best in charge. Later Miss Clancy, with the help of Miss White and Miss Best, bought new books with the gift of the Class of 1932. Jane Pierz and Jennie Santaniella assisted Miss Best and later Miss White in taking charge. The library was, as usual, open once every two weeks for the pupils' use.

The County Fair was held September 29, 1932 and our school won the highest number of honors and was awarded a banner.

As usual we held our magazine drive. Kenneth Schoppe, Elsie Pobat and Edwin Salva were in charge. Thomas Smyth and Stanley Parvelac were considered the best salesmen, both getting ten credits.

In the field of athletics our boys did excellent work. The basketball team with William D'Aleo as manager and Peter Lamagna as captain were champions of their league. In baseball also we had a winning team.

Our clubs continued to give us real help and entertainment and as usual we especially enjoyed the parties given at the last meetings.

In February our new Student Council was organized. The officers elected were: Allan Comrie, President; Raymond Schneider, Vice-President; Ethel Humphries, Secretary.

Various entertainments were provided during the year. During February our class presented Everett Wallace, magician, ventriloquist, and musician who amused us with his songs and tricks. Later the Glee Club's minstrel and the Eighth Grade Girls' Fashion Show gave our boys and girls an opportunity to demonstrate their own ability as entertainers and the girls their skill in dress-making. Three teas were served. A Hallowe'en tea was given by 8A, a Christmas tea by 8B1, and a Washington's tea by 8C.

The saddest incident of our school year was the death on January 30, 1933 of our beloved Principal, Miss Clancy. As a mark of respect classes were omitted February 1, and at the regular Arbor Day services a tree was dedicated as a memorial to her years of unselfish service in the schools of Enfield. Acting in her place has been Mrs. Barnett our Vice-Principal.

The first meeting of the Graduating Class was held February 16. At this meeting we elected Allan Comrie, President; Jane Pierz, Vice-President; Marion Davis, Secretary; Thomas Smyth, Treasurer. The second meeting was called to determine the amount of the class dues and the members of the several committees. At the third meeting we decided to leave, in memory of Miss Clancy, a bronze plaque. Later we chose the class statistics; then our motto, "Ever Onward" and the class flower, the Mountain Laurel.

The class of 1933 decided to follow the custom of holding its picnic at Hartford. In the forenoon we had an interesting trip through the State Capitol and the State Library. In the afternoon we visited Capitol Park and enjoyed the amusements there.

At this time may we express our sincere appreciation to the faculty for their efforts in our behalf.

Another chapter in our lives is

CLASS PROPHECY

On June 1, 1943, the palatial steamer "Imagination" owned by Kenneth Schoppe, George Ganner and Russell Fontaine Steamship Co. under Capt. Joseph Wietecha docked at Edward Ingraham's pier. It had just returned from a year's trip through the land of "Believe it or Not." If you read over the passenger list it would sound rather like this: Madeleine Wenc, Bertha Ziemian, Ruth Hayward, Margaret Fitzgerald. The four Doeswell Sisters, radio stars, Anthony Shelanskas, golf champion, Joseph Walenta, lightweight champion, Leo Baj, his manager, Charles Gatto, William Cowles and Alfred Typronsay, owners of the No Static Radio Co., Nancy Peck noted horse trainer, and her jockies Doris Paradise and Fannie Maxellon, Francis Dubiel, Chester Haber, William D'Aleo, the well known traveling salesmen, Frank Cybulski, just another big business man, Fiore Crescetelle, a radio announcer, and Stella Lizak, Florence Kuhm, Helen Haralambakis owners of the Non-Fattening Food Shops. The busiest members of the party were, Edwin Salva, feature story writer, Stella Petraska, society editor, Jerry Mottola sports editor, Tony Liucci and Edward Karez, camera men, sent out by the world wide "Wallop Sees All Knows All" edited by Michael Marinaccio and Leon Bajek. Their mission was to bring back a detailed report of their every move as a feature story for their paper. Their report follows:

The ship was scheduled to leave the port at 11 o'clock. We arrived at the dock about 10.30. The steward Anthony D'Lorenzo greeted us and told us that Ralph Miller and Max Olko would take care of our baggage. He escorted us to our staterooms where we found Lily Crimona and Frances Vella busily getting things in order. They told us that Henry Robbinski, Carl Raelis, John Romano, James Miller, Frank Grimaldi and

Leo Porcello, were all members of the crew. Edwin decided that he must send a telegram to some one back home. He rang for the porter and Robert Farrington appeared, took the message to Raymond Therrien, telegraph operator, who sent it to Thompsonville, where it was received by Ethel Humphries and telephoned through Janina Olehny to the law office of Campbell and Richards. Genevieve Decaro, the secretary, took the message and gave it to Allen.

As the ship steamed down the Connecticut, the call for dinner was given by Joseph Curry. We knew that our meals would be good for in passing the cooking quarters we recognized Philip La Russa, Stanley Krzys, Frank Barszcz and Leonard Montana. We understand that they learned all they know in the Boys' Cooking Club.

At dinner we certainly were seated at a distinguished table for around us sat Frank Kalwa, the scientist, Rosalie Pease, the author of the famous story "Who Cares," James Lepore, popular song writer, whose song "Watch out or you'll be Reported" was being hummed by everyone, Vivian Antinore, a typist, Amenia Shanko, a bookkeeper and Rose Pitonniak, a stenographer, Mamie Palilla, Dorothy Adams, Matilda Cardone, and Bernice Lacey, teachers. Needless to say the meal was a success.

That evening while promenading the deck we saw Alvira Sarno and Freida Duda selling candy and cigarettes. They told us that the next afternoon there was to be a swimming contest in the ship's pool which we shouldn't miss. We didn't. The first event was a quarter-mile relay race for girls, won by Agnes Pohorylo's famous swimming team composed of Frances Wojcik, Stella Lyko, Rose Franciamore, Stella Pierog, and Sophie Baltronis. The 400 yard swimming title went to Samuel McGill with William Zeronsa second honors. Next came the fancy divers, and they did all kinds of dives, some we didn't know existed. These experts were Charles Di Sciacca, Elizabeth Leete, Blanche Higgins, Charles Sacheli, Elsie Pobat and Charles Ragni.

closed. Let us remember only the friendships and the lessons of the past and let our motto be "Ever Onward."

That evening we were entertained by a varied radio program. The booming voice of Richard Snyder, radio announcer, resounded through the room. "This is station D-E-A-D. It is exactly 7.46½, Connecticut Time, given through the courtesy of the John and Anna Mokrzycki jewelry store." "Good evening my friends. First you shall hear Armand Sarno's Tuney Orchestra with instrumental solos by Helen Cybulska, Stella Poleksi, James Ainsworth, Benny Milkowski and Josephine Zawada."

Next on the program will be Hilda DeMayo, The Higgins Nightingale, followed by Stephen Wolak who will speak on "Nothing." Yes, it is time for more music and here we have Tony Renna's "Connecticut Hill Bilities" with Edward Kozaczka, fiddler. Leroy Fibkins, second fiddler, Michael Falkowski, accordionist; Stanley Kot, Fred Such, John Zarrzycki and Saverio Scavatto harmonicists; and Stanley Parvelac, soloist. That concludes this broadcast." "Stand By for the Story Hour!"

Then followed, The Bed Time Story Hour by Bedtime Story artist Thomas Vella. They say that he keeps all the neighbor's children up nights waiting to hear his yawn. Then followed a most thrilling Detective Story "Who Killed Cock Robin" by Rose St. George. The great crime was solved by Doctor Andrew Watson and Sherlock Holmes Angelica. The Police Department was represented by Francis Mnich. The necessary woman's screams were furnished by Helen Rybicki. Just before the station signed off Rose Maniscalchi gave the late news flashes. Big Fire Sale at Rita O'Brien's Drug Store. Allan Comrie wins fame as a criminal lawyer. Big Air Meet at Frigon's Field, featuring the best aviators and aviatrixes of the world. Among these are Theodore Dernago, Wanda Zawada, Robert Chatterton, Madison Tower, Sophie Nabonzy and Rosalie Deni.

The first stop made by our ship was at Windsor Locks, "The Playground of the World." We learned that we were just in time for the 11th Olympiad at Crooked Field. Some of the countries entered were Warehouse Pointeram, Hazardvillian, Broad Brookamia, Wapingham, Poushovera and State Linera. Admission was $50.50 for men and $50.55 for women. The extra five cents was refunded if the women did not ask any foolish questions. No refunds were made.

We reached Crooked Field and purchased our tickets from Josephine Gurreri at the main gate, then gave them to Celia Olko and Dorita Higgins, the ticket collectors. We were ushered to our seats in section X Y Z by four usherettes, Minnie Zawala, Florence Szela, Jennie Barszcz and Mary Fay.

The parade of athletes started as we reached our assigned seats. The parade was lead by Walter Los, drum major, at the head of the Elaster Band. Next came the champion athletes, Charles Maggio, shot putter; high-jumper, Peter Lamagna; George Nye, sprinter; and Frank Mastalisz, pole valter; and many others not important enough to mention.

A short intermission followed during which milk shakes, containing milk from the famous Smyth-Fuge Dairy were served.

One of the high spots of our trip was our attendance at the opening game of the World Series between The Can't Hit Giants and the Never Win Red Socks. As the players lined up we recognized Charles Allen, Stanley Bania, Royal Broege, Jerry Maniscalchi and Stanley Kwiecienski. At the most critical point of the game Royal Broege was hit by the ball. Julia Zawada, telephone operator, sent for the ambulance which was driven by Walter Landry and brought his assistant nurses Katherine Zycy and Louise Maggio. He was taken away to the Javorski Hospital. There, Doctor Dexter Green bandaged him and took him to his room. The nurses who took special care of him were Josephine Gatto and Christine Verdi. But, he was visited by other nurses of the hospital including Virginia Pascucci, Wanda Szczepanek, Mildred Provencher, Alice Malides, Stella De Forge, Margaret Thompson and Wanda Rzesos.

While recuperating, Royal had many visitors. There was Edson Pierce, the lawyer; John Gwozdz, the baker; Teddy Bednarski, the farmer; Mitchell Raffia, the fire warden; Edward Polek, the butcher; Vernon Frangiamore, the undertaker; and Walter Sas, the mechanic. With all this attention, he soon recovered.

We returned to our ship and continued on our journey which proved to be rather uneventful until one of our passengers received a special edition of the Thompsonville Press, edited by Ruth Gourlie and Vince Reveruzzi. Glancing through the paper, we read such ads as The Beauty Shop owned by Celia Koziara, Santina Bottone, Stella Ziernicki and Mary Piorek. The Smart Shop, operated by Lena Cybulski and Harriet Sheehan, Dressmaking Salon, owned by Sophie Bajek, Mary Lauria, Anna Jucius and Katherine Feranzoviz. These were just incidental, the full page ad caused the greatest stir. It read, "Come one, come all—to Schneiders Hall. The 1943 World Fair will start July 1, at Scitico, Conn. See 10 years of progress. You can't afford to miss it."

We decided we couldn't, and immediately orders were given for "Full Steam Ahead;" and in a short time we recognized the Thompsonville Skyline. As our boat was being docked, we saw Alex Mika and Louis Viniconis, noted fishermen, landing their daily catch. We hailed a bus owned by William Klesczewski and were taken to Scitico.

At the door of the hall, we were met by Phillip Aloisu, the original clown, whose duty it was to take us through the building. He skipped nothing. This list of exhibits and those entering them could be used as a guide for future visitors. Drawing and Painting Exhibition—Daniel Misuraca, William Mangini, Fred Dernago; Modern Carpentry—John Carey assisted by Geraldine Jenkins, secretary; Illustrated Dancing—Jennie Santaniella, Marion Knight; The Old and New Methods in Medicine—Anna O'Neill, Mary Dubish, Mary Carpinski and Evelyn Cappozzi, nurses; The Modern Office—Isabel Blown, Dorothy Swentnickas, Celia Cappozzi and Amelia Jesmainski; Scouts of Tomorrow—Scout leader Jane Pierz; Modernistic Design—Antonio Porto; Everlasting Flowers, Carmella Colarutto. We learned that in the evening, these notables were to be guests. Barney Buscemi, the new Bing Crosby; Genevieve Muzyka, the actress; and Marion Davis, the dancer.

That ended our trip and also our report. We hope you like it.

CLASS WILL

We, the members of the Class of 1938, of the A. D. Higgins School, Town of Enfield, County of Hartford, State of Connecticut, being of sound mind and good judgment, bequeath all our worldly possessions to our heirs.

It is with great regret that we find our lives at the A. D. Higgins School at an end. During our stay here we have acquired and enjoyed many valuable possessions which we must now leave behind us. We hope that our beneficiaries will appreciate our efforts to add to their happiness and welfare. It is with a feeling of gratitude on our part, also, that we make the following bequests:

Item 1. We leave to our Superintendent, Mr. Parkman, and to our Principal, Mrs. Barnett, and to all the eighth grade teachers our deep gratitude for all they have done for us.

Item 2. We leave to the A. D. Higgins School a tablet and a tree, dedicated to the memory of Miss Nora E. Clancy, our beloved principal who died January 30, 1933. As you pass by these memorials, day by day, may you still feel that her influence and wisdom are guiding you and helping you to "Do your best." These gifts are only an inadequate expression of our gratitude for what she has done for us. We hope that they will help you to continue to make this school one of which she would be proud.

Item 3. The victorious basketball team leaves its fine record to next year's boys, with the hope that they, too, will capture the championship.

Item 4. The boys in the Cooking Club leave some aprons for those who forget to bring theirs.

CLASS OF 1933—JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL

Item 5. We leave Miss White and Miss Best a television detector to locate the missing "Sheridans."

Item 6. We leave next year's librarians a new key that fits the library door.

Item 7. We present the school with sound-proof windows so that passing airplanes will not attract attention.

Item 8. John Carey leaves his acrobatic tricks to Frank Zator.

Item 9. Dexter Green leaves his large vocabulary to Clyde Harris, who, we believe, will make good use of it in class meetings.

Item 10. Allan Comrie leaves his executive ability to the next president of the graduating class.

Item 11. Cecelia Cappozzi leaves her whistle to the next playground chairman.

Item 12. Peter Lamagna leaves his athletic ability to Stanley Nosal.

Item 13. To Mr. Fowler we leave all this year's conduct books for future reference in high school next year.

Item 14. The art classes leave the pictures, illustrating scenes from literature and history, to the incoming class.

Item 15. Thomas Smyth leaves some of his good disposition and his ability on the traffic committee to the future chairman.

Item 16. We leave to the next year eighth grade the management of the annual magazine drive.

Item 17. Jerry Matola leaves the job of making announcements to Dominick Destro.

Item 18. Raymond Schneider leaves the Safety Committee in the hands of Charles Warren.

Item 19. Nancy Peck leaves her style to Iola Chapin.

Item 20. Stephen Wolak leaves his play things to Stanley Dynia.

Item 21. Frank Kalwa leaves his misspelled words to George Rypusc.

Item 22. The members of Student Council leave the next eighth grade their wisdom and experience gained in self-government, and thanks for your cooperation this year.

Item 23. Joseph Angelica leaves a set of "Sherlock Holmes" to the future detective.

Item 24. We leave a good supply of golf balls to Miss Woods and Miss Twomey.

It is our wish that Mrs. Barnett be the executrix of this, our Last Will and Testament. In witness whereof, we do hereby set our hand and seal, this fourteenth day of June, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three.

Signed: The Class of 1933.

Witnesses: Alexander Mika,
Barney Buscemi.

CLASS JINGLES

Dorothy Adams

Dorothy Adams is the girl
In whose hair there's always a curl,
Her report is always good
For she does just what she should.

James Ainsworth

James Ainsworth of 8B3
Riding a bicycle you'll see,
In riding his bike he has much skill,
And his duties here he has fulfilled.

Charles Allen

Charles Allen is everything but short,
He is the judge in Miss White's court
In Arithmetic he does excel
And, oh! my goodness how he can spell.

Philip Aloisa

Philip Aloisa, the class clown,
He's up one minute and then he's down;
He wants to be on a baseball team,
Boy, oh, boy! Is he a scream!

Joseph Angelica

Whenever there is any excitement
around,
Joseph Angelica can there be found;
He likes to tease, he likes to play,
He seems to be happy all the day.

Vivian Antinore

Vivian Antinore has lots of friends,
And her fun with them never ends;
In Domestic Science she sews very well;
And all her cooking has a delicious smell.

Leo Baj

Leo Baj, who is a blond,
Says of swimming he is fond;
When he is on the school playground,
He loves to play and run around.

Leon Bajek

Leon Bajek is distributor of 8A
A good salesman he will be some day
Because Tatlers he sells the most
And for competitors he has a clear coast.

Sophie Bajek

Sophie Bajek is a very quiet lass,
And in her studies tries hard to pass;
In each and every test,
Sophie is sure to do her best.

Sophie Baltronis

Sophie Baltronis, a fisherman true,
Caught five shiners and an eel, too;

She behaves in school very well,
And in book reports her marks are swell.

Stanley Bania

Stanley Bania, tall, not stout,
Goes a-fishing for a trout;
With his spear he takes his stand,
And that poor trout he's sure to land.

Frank Barszcz

Frank Barszcz is a quiet lad,
One would never call him bad;
Arithmetic is his delight,
And he does his homework every night.

Jennie Barszcz

Jennie Barszcz, so quiet in school,
Never with boys does she like to fool;
She's in the class of 8B1,
And always has her work neatly done.

Teddy Bednarski

Teddy Bednarski is a quiet boy
To school he likes to bring his toys;
The teacher scolded him one day,
When with his toy he decided to play.

Isabel Blowen

When you want a girl who is sure to be quiet,
One who will never, never cause a riot;
We'll recommend Isabel Blowen from
our class,
Her manners are truly hard to surpass.

Santina Bottone

Who is the girl with the big brown
eyes?
It's Santina Bottone, to our surprise;
In English she is quite smart,
Because in 8B3 she made a good start.

Royal Broege

Royal Broege full of fun,
He's the happiest boy under the sun;
He plays a very good game of baseball,
And he is good-looking, but not tall.

Barney Buscemi

Barney Buscemi, the boy with the curls,
Is popular with all the girls
His pleasant smile and well trained voice
Is perhaps the reason for their choice.

Allan Campbell

Allan Campbell of whom we all know,
His talking ability he likes to show;
He is forever leaving his seat,
But he is one you all should meet.

Cecelia Cappozzi

Cecelia Cappozzi of 8B3
Is as much like Evelyn, as she could
be;
Out in the playground, you'll hear
her say,
Obey the rules, or after school you'll stay.

Evelyn Cappozzi

Evelyn Cappozzi a smart miss,
Has her name on the honor list;
In sewing class she always gets "A",
She might be a dressmaker some fine
day.

Matilda Cardone

Good luck in the future we surely do find,
For Matilda Cardone who is quiet and kind;
Always a smile on her face she wears,
And for her friends she always cares.

John Carey

John Carey we hope some day
Will learn how to do a somersault the right way;
Being a monitor he's quite the best,
But going to French he simply de-tests.

Mary Carpinski

Mary looks quiet,
As she passes through the hall;
But, if you think she's quiet,
You don't know her at all.

Robert Chadderton

Robert is busy from morn till night,
Telling stories is his delight;
Robert is admired in every way,
Good things come in little packages,
so they say.

Carmela Colarusso

Carmela Colarusso is a cheery girl,
And always has her hair in curl;
She is always tidy and neat,
To her arithmetic is a treat.

Allan Comrie

Allan Comrie, our fellow resident,
Of every group he is president;
He's a popular boy as you can see
We predict a great success he'll be.

William Cowles

William Cowles is kind of stout,
And for sports he never comes out;
A jollier fellow is not to be found,
No matter if you search the world around.

Fiore Crescetelle

Fiore Crescetelle likes to sleep all
day,
His spare time he used to fool and
play;
In arithmetic he is fairly good,
And in geography the highest he stood.

Lily Crimona

Lily Crimona of our class
Is quite a merry lass;
A little nose, dark eyes and hair,
And a few curls that she could share.

Joseph Curry

Joseph Curry's a very tall boy
My! but he is full of joy;
In arithmetic he is the best
And certainly excells the rest.

Frank Cybulski

Frank Cybulski, a talkative lad,
Is never seen with a face that is sad;
He was the Tatler distributor of 8B2,
Perhaps a salesman's work he'll do.

Helen Cybulski

Helen Cybulski whom we all know
Dresses neat and looks just so;
She comes to school promptly each
day
No tardy marks does she display.

Lena Cybulski

Lena Cybulski is tall and strong,
In spelling words she is never wrong;
She studies before the nine o'clock
bell,
And in her home room she is known
quite well.

William D'Aleo

Who's that manager of Higgins basketball team?
Why it's William D'Aleo making up
a new scheme;
He dresses up so very neat,
And all his studies are complete.

Marion Davis

Blue eyes and blonde hair
And a nice dress she does always wear;
She is secretary of the graduating class,
And in studies she is a smart lass.

Genevieve DeCaro

Genevieve DeCaro is a clever girl
Her hair isn't straight, but has quite a curl;
She has a nice personality,
And she is full of rascality.

Stella DeForge

Stella DeForge is a talkative girl,
At other remarks she just loves to hurl;
Stella works very hard in each class,
For like everyone else she wants to
pass.

Hilda DeMayo

Who's that singing all day long?
It's Hilda DeMayo, with the latest song;
She has brown wavy hair and eyes so bright,
To know her is a pleasure, all right.

Rosalie Deni

A thrifty girl is Rosalie Deni,
She takes care of every penny;
I know some day she'll be flying on air,
Because she'll be a great millionaire.

Fred Dernago

Fred Dernago, now this is no pun,
Has always thought schools were made for fun;
He says that studying doesn't pay,
That is why he's unprepared each
day.

Theodore Dernago

There he goes, loop the loop,
Into a spin and into a scoop!
Oh boy! can that pilot go!
We're sure it's Theodore Dernago.

Charles DiSciaccia

Charles DiSciaccia of 8C,

And after that he leaves for home,
And to the scout meeting he does roam.

Anthony D'Lorenzo

Anthony D'Lorenzo is quite a stout lad,
And in school he is never sad;
He takes Tony from class to class,
And when June comes we're sure he'll
pass.

Francis Dubiel

Francis Dubiel from down town way,
Very seldom misses a day;
In school, he likes to walk around,

And how often we hear, "Francis, sit
down."

Mary Dubish

Mary Dubish is small of stature,
But when playing ball she is a good catcher;
She likes her teachers, yes everyone,
And for them all her work is done.

Freida Duda

Freida Duda is a girl so fair,
Happy and jolly and free from care;
Always smiling with eyes of blue,
She would do anything for you.

Michael Falkowski, a farmer we know,
With his gun likes to shoot a crow;
In spring he helps to sow the field,
Soon each crop begins to yield.

Robert Farrington

From Clinton, came Robert Farrington,
And since then many friends he's won;
We find that he likes to joke,
But against that we wouldn't vote.

Mary Fay

Mary Fay is always gay,
But when it comes to studying;
She just settles right down to her task,
And can answer all questions asked.

Katherine Feranzoviz

Katherine Feranzoviz of 8B2,
Girls like her are very few;
Her desk cover is up all day,
And Katherine will have her own little way.

On many errands he does go;
With his banjo he likes to stay,
And all day long you will hear him
play.

Josephine Gatto

Who is this girl so nice and neat,
Why its Josephine Gatto we'd like to meet;
She comes to school most every day,
She's a smart girl, I must say.

Ruth Gourlie

Short and fat, bright and clever,
This is Ruth Gourlie, the attendance
monitor;
Whatever the task she worked with a will,
And at collecting pin money she played the game still.

Dexter Green

Dexter Green is a jolly lad,
He is never blue or never sad;
He always tries to do his work,
He never tries to be a shirk.

Frank Grimaldi

Of all the boys I ever met,
Frank Grimaldi is the funniest yet;
When it comes to telling jokes,
Frank likes to fool the folks.

Josephine Gurreri

Who is the girl with the big dark
eyes?
It's Josephine Gurreri to our surprise;
With Harriet she is most always seen,
That's why Harriet asks, "Where's Josephine?"

John Gwozdz

John Gwozdz is known as a quiet
boy,
To do his work he does enjoy;
The result shows on his report card,
Then he's glad because he worked so hard.

too;
He's been our president all the year,
That Raymond is popular is very clear.

Kenneth Schoppe

Kenneth Schoppe is a very bright
boy,
His heart is always full of joy;
I have never seen him stay after school,
And he never has very much time to fool.

Amelia Shanko

Now Amelia Shanko next in line,
As a girl she's quite fine;
She's often seen, but seldom heard,
Unless to give a needed word.

Harriet Sheehan

Harriet Sheehan a secretary wants to
be,
And such a happy girl you don't often see;
Her school work she always loves to do,
What else? She's Irish through and through.

Anthony Shelanskas

Anthony Shelanskas, everyone knows him,
Likes to make believe he's "Slippery Slim";
In his studies he is fair,
But he says he doesn't care.

Thomas Smyth

Thomas Smyth of 8B3,
A successful milkman we predict he'll
be;
For a fine president he has made,
And as Treasurer saw that all the dues were paid.

Margaret Thompson

Margaret, so modest and demure,
Always is a heart-ache cure;
"Silence is Golden," her belief,
To the teachers is quite a relief.

Richard Snyder

Richard Snyder, in the Class of 8A,
Studies the biggest part of the day;
But when his studies come to an end,
He finds that a magazine is his best friend.

Rose St. George

Rose St. George is very small,
At school I see her playing ball;
In penmanship she does real well,
And is always in school before the bell.

Fred Such

There is a boy who comes on a bus,
And collects the class dues for us;
He's always full of play and fun,
He is Fred Such, the farmer's son.

Dorothy Swentnickas

Dorothy Swentnickas is quiet in
school,
With the pupils she never does fool;
She works very hard on the contrary,
Some day she may be a private secretary.

Wanda Szczepanek

Wanda Szczepanek a small girl indeed,
Is always prompt when you are in need;
You can hear her voice not very loud,
But she's there somewhere in the crowd.

Florence Szela

Florence Szela has light blonde hair,
In her subjects she is fair;
But whether it's in work or play,
She always helps in every way.

Raymond Therrien

Who's that good sport of 8B1?
Reading books is his best fun;
As a detective he has earned great fame.
Why, Raymond Therrien, of course,
is his name.

Madison Tower

Madison Tower loves to read,
And in class he pays no heed;
For he says the book is quite fine
To leave right at this time.

Alfred Typronsay

Alfred Typronsay, lithe and slim,
Always seems to be full of vim;
He paints in school from morning till noon,
At this rate he'll be an artist soon.

Thomas Vella

Thomas Vella will win great fame,
And everywhere we will see his name;
A talented artist he is sure to be,

For we all know he can draw beautifully.

Frances Vella

She murmurs in a voice so low
You'd think she had secrets to tell us
so;
But if in speaking she does not shine,
The art of spelling is right in her line.

Christina Verdi

Christina Verdi is a very quiet girl,
Her hair's cut short without a curl;
When the teacher says, "It's your turn now,"
Christina wants to know just why and how.

Louis Viniconis

Louis is full of pep—never sad
Especially when there's no homework to be had;
Because when homework time comes 'round
Louis says he can't be found.

Joseph Walenta

What is that noise out in the hall?
It's Joe Walenta paying us a call;
He's noisy at times, but when a job's to be done
Joe will come helping on the run.

Andrew Watson

Girls are Andrew's life and joy,
He likes them too well for a boy;
Andrew never over-works,
But then, we couldn't say he shirks.

Madeline Wenc

Madeline Wenc is a dainty lass,
Who is heard laughing in every class;
She is always tidy and neat,
And sometimes is not in her seat.

Joseph Wietecha

For neatness and accuracy Joseph is known,
His fine reputation has steadily grown;
His record for thoroughness will serve him well,
He may be president. Who can tell?

Frances Wojcik

Frances Wojcik, who is a blonde,
To go to gym she is very fond;
To Trade School she will go to learn
How to bake a cake without a burn.

Stephen Wolak

Stephen Wolak, the giant of 8B1,
Never exerts himself to run;
He likes to read Western Stories,
About the cowboys and their glories.

John Zarrzycki

Here comes a great baseball fan,
He's always there in the grandstand;
John Zarrzycki he is called,
He's always out for good baseball.

Josephine Zawada

Josephine Zawada, a short girl,
In her hair is always a curl;
She comes to school each day,
And generally is very gay.

Julia Zawada

Julia Zawada has not curly hair,
For the boys she does not care;
But any boy is apt to say,
I'll take Julia any day.

Wanda Zawada

Wanda Zawada is cheerful and gay,
And to her the boys have something to say;
Her looks are pretty and exceedingly fair,
And her clothes are chosen with very great care.

William Zeronsa

When we come into 8B2,
One board says "Report Cards due";
We see that this board is never bare,
For "William Zeronsa" is still written there.

Bertha Ziemian

Bertha Ziemian, so quiet and neat,
Never does she stir from her seat;
There's always a smile to be seen on her face,
And whatever her task she stands high in the race.

Stella Ziemnicki

We know a girl who has great chic,
She's always happy and very meek;
She's seldom interrupted when about to talk,
And with her, certain people like to walk.

Minnie Zowala

Minnie Zowala, so meek and mild,
Is always wearing a pretty smile;
Whenever you look at her in work or play,
She's always sunny, sweet, and gay.

Catherine Zyck

Catherine Zyck of 8B3
A very jolly girl is she;
In her father's lunchroom she helps out
Of her ability there is no doubt.

PRIZES

We are fortunate this year in being able to award to members of the graduating class several prizes, generously offered by the following individuals and organizations.

Two prizes, a first of fifteen and a second of five dollars, in memory of the late Alvin D. Higgins, for excellence in scholarship.

Two prizes, of five dollars each, given by the Woman's Club of Enfield to the pupils ranking highest in Mathematics and English.

A prize of five dollars, presented by the Daughters of the American Revolution, to the pupil whose essay on "Calvin Coolidge, a New England President" is judged best.

On behalf of the school, Mrs. Barnett will present two dollars and fifty cents to the pupil who has shown the greatest improvement in his Junior High School work and in honor of Miss Clancy two and one-half dollars to the one who has done the most for his class.

THE ESSENCE of SAFETY

THE greatest service a bank can render is safety and this applies to stockholder, depositor and customer. Other elements may enter into the selection of a bank but primarily safety will be found of greatest importance.

Because of its position in the banking world as evidenced by the scrupulous care of customers and its well-known conservatism this bank offers a maximum of safety. And we might remark that the essence of safety is satisfactory service.
